SELECTMEN'S REPORT

The amount of money raised by property taxes from Hopkinton taxpayers during 1968 (exclusive of that raised for the purposes of our two Precincts), was $605,277. The following tabulation indicates purposes for which this money was required and includes comparative figures for 1967:

Table I
Amount Required to be Raised by Property Tax

Purpose	1968	1967	Increase 1968 over 1967
Town	81,404	69,019	12,385
School	462,238	422,230	40,008
County	37,122	32,051	5,071
Overlay	10,963	6,035	4,928
War Service Tax Credit	13,550		13,550
	605,277	529,335	75,942

The increase from 1967 in the total of our local property taxes for all purposes was almost $76,000 or 14.5 percent. Although the school tax accounted for $40,000 of the additional sum needed, it is of interest that the relative increase in the school tax last year was only 9.5 percent, or less than for any of the other purposes involved. The increase in property tax levied for Town purposes of $12,385 was an advance of almost 18%. This was accounted for largely by the needs of two departments. In an effort to make the highway budget reasonably adequate in the face of rising prices and with increasing road mileage to maintain, our various highway appropriations were increased $7,800; and a plow and blade were also provided for at a cost of $1,750. The other department which had a significant increase was the police department for which the regular operating budget was raised about $3,000 to cover the cost of a second full-time officer in addition to the Chief. Changes in other Town appropriations were relatively inconsequential.

Our 1968 property taxes were levied against a total assessed valuation base of $20,176,000. As appears from the accompanying table, this represents an increase of $1,342,000, or 7.1 percent, over the corresponding level of assessed valuations in 1967.

Table II

Summary of Assessed Valuation (in $1,000)

	1968	1967	Increase
			Amount	Percent
Land and buildings (Non-factory)	16,622	15,362	1,260
Factory Land and Buildings	786	766	20
Stock-in-Trade, Manufacturers	905	872	33
All Other	1,877	1,848	29
	20,190	18,848	1,342	7.1
Less Exemptions	14	209*
Net Total Assessed Valuation	20,176	18,639	1,537

*Includes $194,200 War Service Exemptions. Such exemptions were terminated in 1968, and instead veterans were granted a basic $50 exemption from tax otherwise due. See Table I.

This compares with a corresponding increase in 1967 over 1966 of $940,000 or 5.3 percent. Since the Selectmen had endeavored to fix 1967 assessments on a 100 percent of market value basis, the townspeople may well be interested to know what accounted for this very substantial increase in our assessment base in 1968. Several factors were involved. First, despite our effort to arrive at the 100% level in 1967, the State Tax Commission determined that we had in fact reached a level of only 96 percent. This meant that there was spread through our town assessment lists at least $700,000 of undervalued property. We therefore completely reviewed the revised valuations we had determined during the last two or three years, and made many individual adjustments to seek to bring the entire town to 100%, and thereby to correct the inequity suggested by the Tax Commission between properties which had been fully assessed and those which had not. Another important factor accounting for the sharp rise in 1968 assessments was a directive from the State Tax Commission that all substantial land areas be valued separately from buildings and structures located on the tracts. In effect, this required a complete new look at many of our assessments for properties involving substantial land holdings. As a result, we assigned to each structure which was on a tract having some surplus land a reasonable parcel to go with the structure itself, and then assessed the extra land involved on the basis of its fair market value. There is no question but that this accounted for a significant part of the total increase during 1968. The third factor to be noted is, of course, new construction which continued healthy during the year, both in the form of new buildings as well as building additions.

One of the vexing results of the shift to an assessment level of substantially 100 percent of market value has been a great increase in the number of applications made to the Selectmen for reconsideration and abatement of taxes assessed. For the 1968 assessment year, the Selectmen acted on 47 such applications formally submitted to us in writing. While it is obviously impossible to satisfy everyone, we endeavor to deal fairly with each taxpayer, and if we have erred, we are eager to correct our mistakes. Everyone, however, should understand that 100% for one is 100% for all; we have little sympathy for taxpayers who have been underassessed heretofore and now complain when asked to bear their fair share of the cost of running our town.

The combined effect of the aggregate 1968 property tax of $605,277 as applied to the year's assessment base of $20,176,000 was a local tax rate of $30. This was an increase of $1.60, or 5.6 percent over 1967. Although the increase was greater than in 1967, it was less than in a good many recent years, and as compared with many New Hampshire towns, Hopkinton residents continued to enjoy a relatively favorable tax situation. This is attributable in part to significant sources of town income available to us other than the property tax (such as the dividend and interest tax, automobile registration, etc.). It is also in part due to the substantial base of good business property that builds up our valuation base, as also, of course, does our high value residential property.

Fifteen years ago, the population of Hopkinton was less than 2,000 persons. The most recent estimates place it close to 3,500. We are tremendously fortunate indeed that this growth has caused us no more serious problems than it has. Although our zoning ordinance, which was adopted in March of 1964, certainly has been helpful in controlling our growth in a healthy way, we have now had enough experience with it to recognize that there are many respects in which it can be improved. In recent months, the Planning Board has been working on proposed amendments of the Ordinance which will be submitted for consideration at a special town meeting shortly after our regular meeting. We urge that you study these amendments, attend any hearings on them, and vote upon them at the meeting when they are presented.

During the year, the Selectmen entered into a contract in behalf of the Town with the federal government providing for a federally-aided planning study of the pollution situation along the Contoocook River, and an investigation of appropriate arrangements to deal with the problem, so far as it is attributable to town-owned drains. Engineering consultants have been retained for this work and considerable progress has been made. It is still much too early to assess the cost which will be involved in complying with the State's order classifying the river.

Probably the most unpleasant problem in Contoocook, and perhaps in the town as a whole in recent years, has been the egg business which has been carried on in the old Kingsbury-Davis shop now owned by Merle Patenaude. Last summer investigations by the State Board of Health as well as by the Selectmen and the Town Health Officer led us to conclude that the situation in the area was intolerable. The Selectmen have sought to negotiate with the landowner for acquisition of the tract of land and building in question, but the price he has asked has seemed unreasonable to us. Because of the urgency of the situation, however, we have inserted into the Selectmen's proposed budget for 1969 a request for a $15,000 appropriation to permit the Town to purchase the property and also provide for removal of the building and filling of the lot at a price which we deem reasonable. At Town Meeting, we shall seek authority to acquire the tract by eminent domain proceedings if negotiations continue to prove useless.

Our proposed budget, though not yet approved by the Budget Committee at the time of preparation of this report, includes several other items which perhaps merit comment. Although the Police Department operating budget is substantially the same as were 1968 expenditures, the total appropriation is increased to provide funds for annual replacement of the cruiser. Experience has indicated that the loss of trade-in value experienced when a cruiser is held over for a second year, together with the excessive maintenance costs which occur in the second year, makes it unwise to wait two years between trades.

We also have budgeted increased funds for the highway department in 1969. These costs are inexorable, and we simply cannot keep our crew, pay for necessary materials, and carry on an adequate maintenance and construction program without making the relatively modest adjustments proposed. We also have an unusual requirement in 1969 which arises from losses sustained by a fire in January in which the road agent lost four trucks on which town plows had been mounted. These plows and wings will have to be replaced, and we have included an item of $4,000 for the purpose. Because of inadequacies which the fire disclosed in our insurance coverage, we also have added $1,000 to the insurance appropriation this year.

Several years ago the Planning Board submitted to the town a proposal for so-called H. B. 701 planning study of the town. Such a project would be financed two-thirds by the federal government and one-third by the town. Although the proposal was defeated at that time, the Planning Board has requested its inclusion in the budget again, and we have done so. Although we believe that much of the information which would go into the report which would result from such a study is already available and known, it is an unfortunate fact that the federal government makes the existence of a "701 Plan" a pre-condition to assistance on various projects for which our town or precincts might well otherwise qualify for aid. We might, therefore, be wise to reconsider our previous negative vote upon this proposal. In any event, if it is adopted, no money will be raised by taxes this year to finance it since it will probably be at least a year or more before the project can actually be commenced.

A major item in our budget in 1969 will be a payment of $8,000 which is programmed against the $20,000 cost of our new fire truck. This year we will complete the schedule of payments on the town grader, and next year we will pay off the final balance on the new Hopkinton fire station and also pay the $12,000 balance which will remain outstanding from the purchase price of the new engine. A glance at the schedule of indebtedness included in the Town balance sheet as printed in this report will reveal that we have been able to pay for our improvements rapidly and to hold the outstanding balance of Town debt to very modest levels. This is perhaps at least one indication of a healthy financial condition for the Town.

At the end of 1968 our former Police Chief, Ronald D. Daniels, Jr., submitted his resignation so that he would be free to take a position in the Merrimack County Sheriff's Department. The Selectmen accepted this resignation with real regret, for we feel that Dana has been an effective and faithful public servant. We wish him well in his new position. Acting upon his suggestion, we have created an advisory committee, on which he is serving with Mr. Donald Rudolf and Mr. Kendrick Sawyer, to aid the Selectmen in the choice of a new Chief. We have had several well-qualified applicants, and we are confident that we will be able to obtain a man to succeed Dana who will continue the good work that he was doing.

Again, we call the attention of all townspeople to the great numbers of persons who assist in many ways, often little known and little noticed, to help to make Hopkinton a good place in which to live. To all of them who help us serve you, we extend our thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

Many worthwhile improvements to the Town roads were accomplished during 1968. Despite critical early season snow-storms and greatly increased cost of highway construction materials, a substantial contribution was made toward bettering our system of 93-miles of public roads now maintained by the Town.

Special emphasis was devoted to improving drainage structures within the roadway system. Paved-invert corrugated steel culvert pipe has been used to replace old culverts in disrepair and many new culverts have been added at strategic places. The installation of stone headers was required.

Old culverts were replaced as follows:

Bog Road	1
Gould Hill Road	2
Straw Road	2
Old Putney Hill Road	1
West Parish Road	1
	(extended)
TRA Project	11
Total	18

New culverts and headers were installed as follows:

Dunbarton Dump Road	1
Brockway Road	1
Irish Hill Road	2
Blackwater Bridge	2
Bog Road	1
	(60" diam.)
Pet Dow Road	1
Penacook Road	1
Hatfield Road	2
Pert Road	1
Little Tookey Road	1
Patch Road	1
Gene Foote Road	2
Spring Street Extension	1
Bassett Mill Road	2
Line Hill Road	2
West Parish Road	1
TRA Project	2
Total	24

Roadways widened, graded and gravelled during the year included the following:

Pet Dow Road	1/10 mile (unfinished)
Line Hill Road	1/3 mile
Total	1/3 mile

Roadways widened, graded, gravelled and asphalted during the year included the following:

Sugar Hill Road	1/3 mile
Old Gage Hill Road and Putney Hill Road	2/3 mile
Brockway Road Approach	1/5 mile
Total	1 1/5 mile

The T. R. A. Project undertaken during 1968 consisted of widening, filling, regrading, gravelling and asphaltting Indian Ridge Road and a portion of Penacook Road for a total distance of 4/5 mile. Pole-lines and hydrants were set back, a total of 13 culverts installed, and all driveway access ramps regraded and paved with hot-top.

Dismantling of the old Blackwater Bridge was begun during the year, and will be continued in 1969.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

Your Police Department continued a program of preventive law enforcement, started in prior years, to attempt to minimize accidents and crimes in the Town. Accidents dropped nearly 50% from 1967. Juvenile cases increased, which we would ascribe largely to better apprehension of offenders. Assaults decreased, while drunkenness and unlawful possession of alcohol cases increased. Criminal breaks into dwellings decreased.

Though total automobile accidents in the Town decreased, it is unfortunate that five persons were killed in two accidents on the portion of Route 89 under construction, and another accident in the same section caused serious injury to one driver. With the completion of that section of road, the hazard has been reduced.

The School Safety Patrol operated successfully for the full year, under the direction of Mrs. Pertice Gaskill and Mrs. Gerhard Fuglestad. More than 20 youngsters participate in the patrol. There were no school crossing accidents during the year.

Many hours were spent with school and parent groups, and with drug-user suspects, to attempt to minimize the expected growth of the drug problem. It is most important that parents observe their youth with regard to possible signs of drug use. Even the "good" kids may use drugs at some time, due to temptation from their fellows.

A new part-time police officer, Richard Strickford, joined the Department, restoring the force to 9 men. At the end of the year, Chief Ronald Daniels submitted his resignation in order to join the Merrimack County Sheriff's Department and establish a Criminal Division under Sheriff Clyde Parker. Officer James Hargrove was appointed acting chief of police, until final action can be taken in 1969 by the Selectmen on appointing a permanent chief.

Your Department answered 2,877 telephone calls, travelled 51,408 miles in the Town cruiser, and was responsible for collection of $4,935 in fines by the Concord District Court, although by law none of these fines come back to enrich the Town treasury.

The Contoocook Valley Animal Shelter operated for the full year, accepting all kinds of stray and unwanted dogs and arranging for placement or disposal. Robert Duclos has done a fine job in managing the shelter, supported partially by the Ella Tarr Trust.

For the future, we feel that a permanent police office is still a paramount necessity. The Selectmen's office does not provide adequate facilities for the Police Department. Parking ordinances should be passed by the Town, to regulate parking in the congested sections for the benefit of all motorists and pedestrians. Eventually, though perhaps not this year, there is increasing need for round-the-clock police patrol. Many breaks into houses occur during the wee hours of the morning, when we have no patrol. This round-the-clock patrol can best be achieved, when the town sees fit, by addition of a third full-time policeman.

Our thanks are extended to the Selectmen and Town officials, and to the citizens, for helping us to do our job.

LOG OF THE HOPKINTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

November 1, 1967 to October 31, 1968

The Department received 58 calls for assistance, more than doubling the calls received last year, listed as follows:

- 7 Mutual aid runs or standbys
- 6 Chimney fires
- 5 Vehicle fires
- 4 Buildings
- 4 Grass fires
- 4 Dump (including one burning by Department due to dry weather)
- 3 Brush fires (including once children playing with matches and once children leaving campfire in the woods)
- 3 Flooded cellars
- 2 Oil burners
- 2 Clothes dryers
- 2 Electric light wire fires
- 1 Standby for transfer of oil and righting of overturned truck
- 1 Vacuum
- 1 Electric blanket
- 1 Waste basket fire
- 1 Fixture short-circuited
- 1 Auto accident — washed down highway and supplied floodlights
- 1 Report of smoke in woods
- 1 Blocked chimney and fireplace
- 1 False alarm — reported that the covered bridge in West Hopkinton was on fire
- 1 Pile of tires set on fire by Halloween pranksters
- 2 Major repairs to pumps
- 1 Standby at Hoague-Sprague during repairs to dam
- 1 Standby on Halloween
- 1 Standby on a very dry, windy week-end

78 Ambulance runs were made, including 4 for the resuscitator. This is an increase of 3 over last year.

Four men were sent to Mary Hitchcock Hospital in Hanover, N. H. for three days of intensive ambulance training. Upon return, they unanimously agreed that more men should be sent to complete the course in the future.

This year the Department held its 2nd annual 4th of July Celebration. Congressman James C. Cleveland was Parade Marshall. Teams and apparatus from all the surrounding communities participated in the parade and muster. The Muster Trophy went to the Henniker Department. The Trophy for the Department travelling the greatest distance went to Grenier Air Base crash truck.

The men have completed the building of a muster truck, making available another 500 gallon per minute pumper, ready for use at anytime.

The Hopkinton Fire Department is forming the newly organized Cub Pack No. 77. The Department, once again, co-sponsored with the Hopkinton Police Department, a Little League Baseball Team.

In the fall, the Department participated in the Fire Prevention Week Parades in Allenstown and Concord. The 20th annual Thanksgiving Raffle was held the Friday before Thanksgiving.

The Department has entered into 2 mutual aid compacts, one of which is the Capital Area Compact, consisting of the towns of Chichester, Canterbury, Pembroke, Bow, Boscawen and Hopkinton and the City of Concord. The second Compact is with the communities to our west and north, composed of the towns of Henniker, Warner, Bradford, Webster, Sutton and Hopkinton.

As time permitted last summer, monthly drills were held. For example, the Bradford Department called for mutual aid on the Kearsarge Reel Company, and 20 minutes after the first call was made, there were 7 engines actually pumping water throughout the building complex. Our own Department is to be host to the first practice in the spring and is planning to hold a very good and unusual workout for them.

The Department wishes to thank the townspeople for their loyal support to our celebrations and fund raising activities.

HOPKINTON VILLAGE PRECINCT REPORT OF PRECINCT COMMISSIONERS

(Water Department Business)

Street lighting continues to account for the greater part of the regular Precinct budget, exclusive of the Water Department. The precinct also appropriately decorated a tree in the Hopkinton Village square at Christmas time, and provided for operation of the town clock in the Congregational Church steeple. The services of a person willing and capable of repairing this clock are being sought.

The early snow this year, before a substantial freeze-up, has made the clearing of the skating area at Frog Pond difficult. However, it is expected that this valuable recreational activity will continue to be provided. The commissioners are also seeking ways to more effectively utilize the old Fire House and would welcome any suggestions.

HOPKINTON PRECINCT WATER BOARD REPORT

Four new subscribers were added to the system during the past year.

Two motor failures occurred on the main pump when the power lines were lost during storms. The Board attributes the first failure to the installation of improper protective devices on the control panel by the R. H. White Company. As the R. H. White Company was engaged to replace the pump, we have not paid their bill and are in the process of negotiating this with our engineers', Camp Dresser & McKee and the R. H. White Company.

As a result of this first failure, we asked Camp Dresser & McKee to modify the protective circuits per the suggestion of the motor manufacturer, nevertheless, during a second storm, a second motor was lost. We are unable to ascertain the direct reason for loss of this motor — unless the control people made a wiring error not immediately apparent. Further protective circuits have since been added.

The old aqueduct pumping system was used to provide water during the time the new system was inactive. The old system will be maintained, however, we are now discussing the possibilities of installing suitable emergency pumping facilities at the new site.

CIVIL DEFENSE

Your Civil Defense department continued to train and equip the Hopkinton Rescue Squad, which responded to two fatal accidents, several other accidents, and gave demonstrations and held training sessions.

A training school for Radiological Monitors was conducted by the State at Hopkinton High School, but it is a little pathetic that only five citizens could see fit to attend.

It has been proven across the nation that Civil Defense has been a big help in civilian disasters — forest fires, floods, earthquakes. We are not preparing solely for bombs.

But it takes interest and activity by the citizens to have the readiness to cope with civilian or military disasters. This town has not shown this interest, except in the isolated area of Rescue. This is an invitation for any of the townspeople to volunteer to become active, and to help organize other aspects of Civil Defense.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

For the past few years my reports have attempted to look to the future on the local, state and national level. My prognostications have been reasonably accurate and I probably should continue to press my luck and continue the same format. However, I do not now have the large number of contacts at the state level that I enjoyed while I held office in the School Administrators Association and with changes in the party holding the top office at both the state and federal level anything that I could predict would be pure "guesstimate" and highly lacking in merit. Therefore, this year, I will confine my report to the local level and I shouldn't find it too difficult to provide a bit of food for thought and hopefully some reaction. The one exception follows:

I always have a hard time getting people concerned about proposed legislation and regulations at the state level. Reaction after the fact has been more than adequate, but of course, was of little value. The State Board of Education has, in the study stage, regulations, which if adopted, would make a tremendous impact on your school system. The legislative "hopper" is filled with resolutions pertaining to education which if enacted would have a very drastic effect, not only on your school system, but on your school budget as well. Citizens who have a concern in these areas, and I know they are legion, should at least request their representatives to the General Court to keep them advised of proposed school legislation and then, after thoughtful consideration, advise their representatives of their feelings and if possible attend the hearings on the proposed bills. If there is no reaction among the citizenry, the legislature cannot help but assume that the proposal is acceptable to them. If there is no reaction prior to the passage of a bill or regulation, then there should be none when the time for implementation arrives.

It may be just as well that during the period of the "Greater Dichotomy" (the dichotomy I am told started with the planning and the construction of the Harold Martin and the Maple Street Schools and has had its peaks and low points ever since. The present eruption caused by cooperative school district consideration and the non-flattering reports of various Boards and Organizations) that the district was being served by an interim superintendent. By interim in this case I mean a superintendent who came into the district knowing full well that his tenure would not exceed three years because of retirement requirements.

The Cooperative matter having been legally set aside, our attention this past year has been focused on a building program as voted by the district in March of 1968. I will spare you a review of the details up to the present, but I feel impelled to point out a few items which I think should be given consideration in any building program that Hopkinton may enter into. Much of this thinking has come into being since the original building program was voted, caused by impending legislation and State Board action and to some extent a greater familiarity on my part of the present school operation; and should not be construed in any way to be critical of the Building Committee which worked so hard to bring in an acceptable plan.

1. Hopkinton High School is definitely oriented to the academic or college bound youngster. This is clearly discernible by an examination of the course of study and the number of pupils enrolled in the non-academic courses.

In a residential community such as Hopkinton, this is natural but our graduates do not follow the pattern. We send our proportionate share on to college but we have a goodly number who do not attend college. The High School principal's report last year indicated that 39.9% of the previous years graduating class went on to a four year college and 18.6% went on to some kind of post-secondary education leaving 41.5% obtaining no education beyond high school. The present building program does well in perpetuating the existing philosophy but should it not consider, as is now being done country wide, what can and should be done to more adequately prepare the non-academic youngster?

2. Not too long ago, in fact in 1961, high school libraries were not a requirement. Most of us were struggling along in an attempt to meet a minimum library standard when they suddenly changed to a Materials Learning Center or something similar. This is being adequately cared for in our present high school planning. Now comes rumors, and in fact notification, that Elementary School Standards are being considered for adoption. At the present time one item of requirement in these standards is an elementary school library. The adoption of such standards probably won't come for a while, but they will come, as sure as did the Secondary, and Hopkinton will not be ready, and nothing in the present building program is going to provide such readiness. Would it not seem prudent in the light of present direction, which the Building Committee did not have when they were planning, to determine the future needs of our elementary school plants before proceeding with the present planned additions?

Hopkinton Schools have stood still, marking time, long enough. It is time that the dichotomy hatchet was buried and as the politician would say, "Let's get this school district moving again" and I hope I shall be able to contribute to it during my last year as your superintendent.

Our office has not felt a great sense of accomplishment in the past two years. We hope that in my final report next year we will be able to use such terms as "point with pride", "happy to report", "It is with a feeling of accomplishment", etc.

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT + IN SERVICE EDUCATION EQUALS PROJECT CAPE

A REASON WHY

The rising cost of education is a problem of immense concern to all of us. Although many factors contribute to this continual rise one might properly ask if this constant increase carries with it a corresponding increase in the quality of the education your children are receiving. This is not an easy question to answer, and it is not the intent of this report to attempt an analysis of this problem. However, it will be the objective of this report to discuss a way by which we may, at least, be able to provide more thorough justification for many of the expenditures made, and to assist our teachers in developing ways to achieve the most efficient use of these materials in a well coordinated and planned program of education. Project CAPE represents the start of that effort. While a CAPE progress report is listed on another page in this Section, the emphasis here will, nevertheless, focus in on this business of curriculum development and in-service education as being the best means of supporting wise expenditures for your school system if carried on in a planned arrangement over a period of years.

During the past year we have tried to conduct a series of workshops for our teachers for the purpose of bringing to them new ideas as well as restatements of the best of the old to assist them in their classroom work. While this represents a serious effort on our part, the value of it can only really be assessed when we are able to provide an opportunity for further investigation and the chance to try things out in a classroom situation. These ideas require time and the opportunity to sit down in a professional atmosphere, free from the normal routine of every day duties, to explore, discuss and to use those funds available in the most efficient manner possible in putting into practice the ideas that are presented. This is not a simple task. It cannot be achieved in the normal 180 day school year. Thorough exploration into the many new curriculum ideas and their relationship to the development of a closely coordinated system for the school requires many hours of devoted study. This can only be accomplished through a type of intensive summer work such as that done in Project CAPE. Yet curriculum development is just the first step. Once the idea has been formed and a plan laid out, the next step, that of in-service education, must be taken. This simply means taking the plan and working with the teachers to put it into operation. In order to derive the full benefit of this, a period of time that greatly exceeds weeks and even months needs to be made available. Thus, if the kinds of programs developed through the CAPE Project are to be fully effective, they must be kept as an on-going portions of our educational system.

While it is one of the aims of Project CAPE to bring about the best use of the funds available, it is also of the utmost importance to keep in mind that the most important purpose is to bring about the kind of change that will give you the best system of education possible. We are all concerned about the type and quality of education our children receive. The assurance of achieving this goal can only be given if we are constantly alert to the kinds of ideas that can lead us on the road to that good school system; one that meets the needs of all students and makes learning something that is exciting and something the child wants to do.

The future of Project CAPE is to carry out this type of plan. The Guide developed last summer and the experimental projects being carried on now are the forerunners to eventual implementation of those ideas most practical in the regular classroom. While this is going on within each school, the next phase of the project will, no doubt, be concerned with Reading. This is an area much in need of review and coordination. If the necessary funds are voted, then a thorough study of reading can be made and a sound program developed for the benefit of each child.

It cannot be denied that such a program costs money. Yet, when we consider that better than sixty percent of our budget is spent for teachers' salaries and instructional materials, doesn't it sort of make sense to spend at least a little bit of money ($\frac{1}{2}$ of one percent of the total budget) on improving and strengthening the program being purchased? Project CAPE costs about \$3.25 per student. (We spend about \$4.00 per student for athletic transportation in grades 7-12.) The only point to be made here is that the cost of this program and its ultimate benefits is a justifiable one. A chart showing the cost of CAPE follows this report.

It has been asked why is Project CAPE a joint effort of three communities. There are two answers to this question. First of all we are able to form a study committee of people representing various philosophies and ideas. This can provide for a broader exchange of points of view and hopefully a more comprehensive program. The second point brings us back to cost. The sharing of costs makes each community's share that much less, and yet does not diminish the quality of the effort of the committee. For an individual district the cost would be rather high, and enough personnel might not be available to staff the committee.

Finally, why curriculum development and in-service education? The idea is not new with me. Although new to this Union, many school districts have conducted such programs for many years. I hope that I have been able to adequately explain why I feel Project CAPE is of great value to this district. In closing I would like to draw on two resources for support. The first is from a recent publication of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development. The author writes

This above all: education is not a game. The present writer — and, most likely, the present reader — have livings to earn and families to support. Jobs in education may make this possible. Yet schools do not exist for our benefit; they serve a purpose as serious as the purpose of hospitals (and with no schools, or bad enough ones, there can be no hospitals, or only very bad ones); they serve a purpose as serious as armies or nuclear missiles (to be sure, this hardly seems to be recognized, but it is absolutely sure that man cannot fail to recognize it for many more years); they serve a purpose as serious as legislatures and courts. . . .they serve a purpose at least as serious as whiskey, cosmetics, tobacco, detergents, floor wax, and automobiles.

We cannot apologize for a relentless impatience to improve education. We can never settle for "business as usual". We cannot merely write learned papers for the edification of our colleagues and the enhancement of our own professional image, or for the enlargement of our income. Our schools are not as good as they might be; they are not as good as they need to be; and it is our job to make them better. The verdict of our colleagues on us will count as nothing compared to the verdict of history on our civilization.¹

And from a poem by Edwin Markham:

We are all blind until we see,
That in the human plan
Nothing is worth the making,
If it does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious
If man unbuilt goes?
In vain we build the world unless,
The builder also grows.²

PROJECT C. A. P. E. – A PROGRESS REPORT

Project C.A.P.E., though still in a period of relative infancy has had an impact in schools and will have more as more teachers become involved in its program.

Since the project received approval last March a number of things have occurred. This brief chronology brings the status of C. A. P. E. up to date.

In order to set a proper base from which to work, a number of meetings of an organizational nature were held. The principles in these meetings included members of C.E.F.S. at the University of New Hampshire, the principals of the schools involved and the teachers selected to work on the project. These sessions helped define the project's objectives, the scope of the effort and brought to the committee thoughts on the past, present and future of the social studies. Much of the latter was achieved through consultation with Dr. David Draves and Dr. John Chaltas of the University of New Hampshire, Mr. Carter Hart, Social Studies Consultant at the State Department of Education, and a rather enlightening trip to the Union 21 Social Studies Workshop in Hampton, N. H. Coupled with a large amount of reading and a later trip to Hanover the committee was thus able to set itself to the huge task of studying curriculum, working out a useful guide and planning for its eventual implementation. The work thus done has resulted in the publication of an approximately 80 page guide, a series of demonstration units for grades 1, 4, 6, 9 and 11, plans for a series of pilot programs in grades 1, 2 and 3, and provision to receive feedback and make necessary revisions in the guide and its objectives.

The guide is not a content oriented document. It does not include a detailed outline and does not hew to the line of a particular text or publisher. Instead it provides for the teacher a discussion of what the new social studies is, what many of the devices are for teaching, lists a philosophy, objectives and implications, and details many of the skills a child should master. Also, it discusses procedures – namely student involvement in the learning process – and details a scope and sequence chart in which the areas that ought to be the theme for each year are listed and discussed with examples given for the types of topics that could be used. It gives to the teacher and the school a solid foundation upon which to build its social studies into a well coordinated and articulated program that meets the needs of all students.

The program of pilot studies involves a number of primary grade teachers in using a variety of social studies materials on a trial basis. Frequent evaluations both among the teachers involved and with all elementary teachers will be conducted.

At other levels, the units developed during the summer will be tested with a similar form of evaluation taking place.

By the end of the year it is planned that the project will have been thoroughly tested, revised where need be and many of its principles adopted for classroom use.

In order to keep this effort current an advisory committee is to be formed.

This group will provide an on-going evaluation and forum for discussion so as to keep open good lines of communication among all in social studies.

All of this takes time. It will not realize fruition for sometime. However, it is a start, and if approached with an open mind will be the means to giving you and your children a good school system.

REPORT OF HOPKINTON ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Malcolm A. Merrill, Principal

The enrollment of the two Hopkinton elementary schools presently stands at 402 pupils: 268 pupils enrolled in two classes each, grades 1-6, at the Maple Street School and 134 pupils grouped in one class each, grades 1-6, at the Harold Martin School. Of the 268 pupils at the Maple Street School, 90 are bussed at School District expense, while at the Harold Martin School 101 of the 134 pupils are transported at School District expense. Approximately 12 pupils actually walk to or from school each day at the Martin School.

The costs of providing an education for our children continue to rise. New programs and services are desired or demanded. The problems inherent in maintaining two small elementary schools increase. I would like to briefly discuss just a few of these problems in my report.

Administration

A principal should be at his school, but I have not yet found a way to be at both schools at the same time. The principal's office is at the Maple Street School. If I have administrative work which must be done at the Harold Martin School, or a conference to hold, I must use the Teachers' Room for this purpose.

Special Services

A school library should be a must in any elementary school of 200 or more pupils. An attractive, well equipped library with a quiet, pleasant atmosphere available to all children can do a great deal to help stimulate a child's interest in reading. Neither of our elementary schools boasts a school library.

We attempt to provide pupils with instruction in both art and music. It is necessary for the instructor of each of these programs to travel, often with equipment and/or supplies, back and forth between the two schools.

Duplication of Facilities

Equipping and maintaining two elementary schools in a town the size of Hopkinton means that we must have "two" of many items where one might ordinarily suffice. This is especially true in the case of kitchen facilities, cafeteria, janitorial equipment, and the larger pieces of audio-visual equipment. In some instances, we could better utilize equipment and materials if pupils were housed in one building.

Educational Program

The un-graded primary program seems to be functioning smoothly in many communities through-out New Hampshire, as well as in other states. It would be most difficult for us to implement an ungraded program with our classes split between the two ends of town. We have made a meager effort at partial departmentalization in grades 5 and 6 in both elementary schools, but could structure a much more efficient and comprehensive program if we could place all six classes of grades 5 and 6 under one roof. We could much better utilize the subject area strengths of the various teachers by such a program.

The two elementary schools exist. I do not advocate closing one of them and building an addition on the other at this time. I would like to explore the possibility of placing grades 5 and 6 (three classes of each) in the Harold Martin School and grades 1-4 (three classes of each) at the Maple Street School, or perhaps place grades 1 and 2 at the Martin School and 3-6 at the Maple Street School. The two kindergartens, if voted, would be left as planned. The one deterrent to this organization, as I see it, might be prohibitive transportation costs, but since we run busses from one end of town to the other anyway, transportation costs may not be as high as one might predict. Potential for improvement in the educational program could very well offset any extra transportation costs we might realize.

Minimum standards and recommendations for New Hampshire public elementary schools are in process. Within the near future, the New Hampshire Legislature will designate immediate and long-range goals for public elementary schools. New Hampshire communities will have no difficulty making the necessary adjustments if they plan carefully and sensibly to meet the present and future educational needs of their children.

There were 40 members of the Class of 1968. Of these, 45% are attending four-year institutions and 22.5% are attending institutions for one to three years of further education. This makes a total of 67.5% of the class going on to further education. Of the remainder, four are serving in the Armed Forces, two are at home, and seven are gainfully employed.

Those who are presently continuing their education are attending the following institutions: Plymouth, Keene, UNH, Dartmouth, Slippery Rock, Katharine Gibbs, Pierce College, N. H. Technical Institute, Berlin Vocational Institute, New England College, The Cinderella School, Tufts, McGill, University of Conn., Northeastern, N. H. Vocational Institute, and Vesper George School of Art.

The following teachers joined the staff in September 1968: Mr. Lloyd Peterson, English and Social Studies; Mrs. Esther Hansen, Girl's Physical Education; Mr. Michael Moodie, French; and Mr. John Beattie, Chemistry and Physics. Mrs. Marilyn Heiberger joined the staff in December as a part-time guidance counselor.

Attempting to meet the needs of today's youth is a most challenging and, sometimes, a most frustrating problem. While there is continuous study toward improvement of our curriculum, a great deal is dependent upon additional space and improved facilities. I sincerely hope that the building program can move forward with all possible speed.
